

*At this time, the Responsible Renter Classes at The Women's Hearth are for people identifying as women only. ***

Our November Responsible Renter Class offerings will be on Friday, November 6th from 9:00am – 2:30pm and again on Friday, November 20th from 9:00am – 2:30pm at The Women's Hearth, 920 w 2nd ave. All three sections of the curriculum will be taught on each day. Please have participants arrive by 8:45am. Participants will need to pre-register for the class and there is a class size limit of 6 people.

REGISTRATION WILL OPEN UP THE WEEK BEFORE THE CLASS.

- Registration for the November 6th class will open on October 26th
- Registration for the November 20th class will open on November 11th

Spots will be filled on a first come first serve basis. Participants can register by email (responsiblerenter@help4women.org) or by calling 509-455-4249. Be sure to specify which day you are registering for. Please check our website (help4women.org/responsible-renters) for updates on when our next class will be.

Participants should expect the following when showing up to attend:

- Upon entering the building, a mask will be provided for the participant, their temperature will be taken, and they will need to wash their hands. Their mask will need to be worn for the entirety of the class, but can be taken off if they go outside during breaks. If a participant is symptomatic or refuses to follow our health and safety guidelines, they will not be able to participate in the class that day.
- During the class, participants will be sitting at tables, with 6+ feet distance between each other.
- A light snack will be provided. Since it is an all-day class, participants are encouraged to bring their own food and drink.
